A free public transport voucher will be issued to participants booking online through this system; make sure to print the voucher before you come to Bonn.

3- Getting to Bonn

Bonn is located approximately twenty minutes south of Cologne/Koeln and two hours north-west of Frankfurt/Main and can be reached from three main airports, Cologne/Bonn Airport, Frankfurt International Airport and Düsseldorf Airport.

Delegates arriving at Cologne/Bonn Airport can reach Bonn city centre either by taxi (the fare from the airport to the city centre is approximately €50.00), or by bus (SB 60), departing from the bus stop at Terminal 1 to the city centre (final stop "Hauptbahnhof", main railway station) at a cost of about €7.20.

Delegates arriving at Frankfurt International Airport may wish to take the train to Bonn. There is a high-speed train service (ICE) between the airport and Bonn/Cologne. Travel time is approximately 40 minutes and the ticket cost is about €60.00 (2nd class). Departure is from the long-distance train station (Fernbahnhof) in the airport complex. The destination is Cologne. The station stop for Bonn is the town of Siegburg (please get off at: Siegburg/Bonn). Taxis are available for approximately €35.00 from Siegburg to Bonn. Normal train service between Frankfurt International Airport and Bonn is also available (from the long-distance train station (Fernbahnhof) in the airport). Travel time is approximately 1 hour 45 minutes and a ticket costs round about €40.00 (2nd class). This trip along the Rhine River is one of the most scenic train trips in Germany and brings you directly into the city centre of Bonn. From Düsseldorf Airport to Bonn, there are direct trains, which run hourly and have a travel time of about 66 minutes and the ticket cost is about €17.00 (2nd class).

As mentioned above, if you have booked your hotel accommodation via the website (http://www.bonn-region.de/IPBES_2014) you will receive a free public transportation ticket for the duration of your stay in Bonn. We encourage each participant to bring adequate funds (in Euros) to ensure that your transportation costs from the airport to the hotel are covered.

4- Duration and schedule of the meeting

The proposed schedule for the MEP and Bureau meetings is as follows:

- Monday, 10 March: Bureau meeting, with MEP co-chairs as observers;
 - Tuesday, 11 to Thursday, 13 March: MEP meeting, with Bureau members and chairs of scientific subsidiary bodies of MEAs as observers; and
 - Friday 14 March: Bureau meeting, with MEP co-chairs as observers.
- The Government of Germany will host a short a scientific event followed by reception (date to be confirmed) to provide an opportunity for MEP and Bureau members to meet with the scientific community interested in biodiversity in the Bonn area.

5- Registration

Registration of delegates: All delegates will be invited to register upon arrival at the meeting venue. IPBES sponsored delegates can obtain from the registration desk at the time of registration, information and procedures related to payment of their daily subsistence allowance. Nametags will be issued to participants upon registration.

6- Meeting documents

Working and information documents for the meeting will be available on www.ipbes.net in due course.

Participants are strongly encouraged to bring their own documents to the meeting. A limited number of paper copies will be available.

7- DSA disbursement

Supported participants from developing countries will need a copy of their passport or other official identification (with photo ID), flight ticket and boarding pass stubs when claiming DSA. The venue and timings for collections of daily subsistence allowance (DSA) will be communicated on the first day of the meeting at the registration desk.
