Rules of procedure for the platform’s plenary

Note by the secretariat

1. The representatives of Governments, in the outcome document of the third ad hoc intergovernmental and multi-stakeholder meeting on an intergovernmental science-policy platform on biodiversity and ecosystem-services known as the “Busan outcome”, agreed that the platform should be established as an independent intergovernmental body administered by one or more existing United Nations organizations, agencies, funds or programmes, and envisaged that a body known as the “plenary” would be established as the platform’s decision-making body.

2. Paragraph 6 (g) of the Busan outcome states that the plenary is to “establish” its rules of procedure. Subject to institutional arrangements to be made between the platform and relevant United Nations organizations, agencies, funds or programme, the platform’s plenary might consider adopting its own rules of procedure, applying the rules of procedures of the governing body of one of those organizations for the work of the platform’s plenary or adopting a combination of those two approaches.

3. The annex to the present note contains draft rules of procedure for the platform’s plenary, on the assumption that it may wish to adopt its own rules of procedure. The draft rules are based on the rules of procedure of the governing bodies of existing organizations within the United Nations system, appropriately modified. They also take into account, where relevant, guidance from the Busan outcome.

4. Should the platform’s plenary decide to apply the rules of procedure of an existing governing body or to combine its own new rules of procedure with such existing rules, the draft rules set out in the annex to the present note might help it to identify an appropriate approach in doing so.

5. It should be noted that the references contained in the draft rules with respect to various aspects of institutional arrangements of the platform, such as members, observers, the platform’s plenary, subsidiary bodies or officers, are subject to outcomes of consideration of institutional arrangements of the platform and that, where appropriate, those references might need to be adjusted to reflect any agreement on those matters.

Rule 40
After the Chair has announced the beginning of voting, no participant shall interrupt the voting except on a point of order in connection with the actual conduct of the voting.
