Connecting Peace Initiative (CPI) is a grassroots, not- for profit organization working in the areas of community Climate Change, health, civic education/ electoral reforms and development interventions among the poor and vulnerable groups in communities in Rivers State.

In line with our mission statement, we have worked in collaboration with series of NGOs both in state and federal level. Based on our community development engagement and the pertinent role Mr Emeka has played in our organization and in humanity we are pleased to nominate him as the focal point as we continue to impact the lives positively

Yours Faithfully,
